

Guidelines Regulating Advertising for the Southeastern Regional Transit Authority

Adopted March 29, 2019

Purpose

Through these Guidelines the Southeastern Regional Transit Authority (herein "SRTA") intends to establish uniform, viewpoint-neutral standards for the display of advertising. In setting its advertising standards, SRTA seeks to fulfill the following goals and objectives:

- (a) maximization of revenue generated by advertising;
- (b) maximization of revenue generated by attracting, maintaining, and increasing ridership;
- (c) maintaining the safe and orderly operation of SRTA;
- (d) maintaining a safe and welcoming environment for all SRTA passengers, including minors who travel on or come in contact with SRTA system; and
- (e) avoiding the identification of SRTA or the Commonwealth of Massachusetts with advertisements or the viewpoints of the advertisers.

SRTA reserves the right, from time to time, to suspend, modify or revoke the application of any or all of these Guidelines as it deems necessary to comply with legal mandates, to accommodate its primary transportation function and to fulfill the goals and objectives referred to herein. All the provisions of these Guidelines shall be deemed severable.

Advertising Program and Administration

- (a) These guidelines shall apply to advertising on or in all SRTA equipment and facilities (including but not limited to land, terminals, stations, garages, yards, shops, structures, revenue vehicle, non-revenue vehicles, fences, equipment, electronic and hard copy media, websites and other personal property) unless otherwise expressly provided by contract regarding a premise covered by an alcoholic beverages license.
- (b) SRTA shall, from time to time, select an "Advertising Contractor" who shall be responsible for the daily administration of SRTA's advertising program in a manner consistent with these Guidelines and the terms of its agreement with SRTA. The advertising program shall include, but not be limited to, promotion, solicitation, sales, accounting, billing, collections and posting of advertising displays on or in all SRTA equipment and facilities.
- (c) The Advertising Contractor shall provide, or shall subcontract for, all employees and equipment necessary to perform the work and provide the services required by SRTA.
- (d) SRTA shall designate an employee (typically, the Director of Transit Planning) as its "Contract Administrator" to be the primary contact for the Advertising Contractor. Questions regarding the terms, provisions and requirements of these Guidelines shall be addressed initially to the Contract Administrator.

SRTA Operations and Promotions

SRTA has the unqualified right to display, on or in its equipment and facilities, advertisements and notices that pertain to SRTA operations and promotions, consistent with the provisions of its agreement with the Advertising Contractor.

Disclaimer

SRTA reserves the right, in all circumstances, to require that an advertisement on or in its equipment and facilities include a disclaimer indicating that it is not sponsored by and does not necessarily reflect the views of SRTA.

Advertising Standards

- a) SRTA intends that its equipment and facilities constitute non-public forums that are subject to the viewpoint-neutral restrictions set forth below. Certain forms of paid and unpaid advertising will not be permitted for placement or display on or in SRTA equipment and facilities.
- b) SRTA shall not display or maintain any advertisement that falls within one or more of the following categories:
 - i) Demeaning or disparaging. The advertisement contains material that demeans or disparages an individual or group of individuals. For purposes of determining whether an advertisement contains such material, SRTA will determine whether a reasonably prudent person, knowledgeable of the SRTA's ridership and using prevailing community standards, would believe that the advertisement contains material that ridicules or mocks, is abusive or hostile to, or debases the dignity or stature of, an individual or group of individuals.
 - ii) Smoking. The advertisement promotes the sale or use of, or depicts, tobacco or tobacco-related products, products that simulate smoking or are modeled on tobacco products, including but not limited to cigarettes, cigars, and smokeless (e.g. chewing) tobacco and electronic cigarettes.
 - iii) Marijuana. The advertisement promotes the sale, use or cultivation of marijuana or marijuana-related products.
 - iv) Profanity. The advertisement contains profane language.
 - v) Firearms. The advertisement either (a) advertises a firearm or a brand of firearms, (b) contains an image of a firearm in the foreground of the main visual or (c) contains image(s) of firearm(s) that occupy 15% or more of the overall advertisement.
 - vi) Violence. The advertisement contains an image or description of graphic violence, including but not limited to (1) the depiction of human or animal bodies, body parts or fetuses, in states of mutilation, dismemberment, decomposition or disfigurement, and (2) the depiction of weapons or other implements or devices used in the advertisement in an act or acts of violence or harm on a person or animal.

- vii) Unlawful goods or services. The advertisement, or any material contained in it, promotes or encourages, or appears to promote or encourage, the use or possession of unlawful or illegal goods or services.
- viii) Unlawful conduct. The advertisement, or any material contained in it, promotes or encourages, or appears to promote or encourage, unlawful or illegal behavior or activities.
- ix) Obscenity or nudity. The advertisement contains obscene material or images of nudity. For purposes of these Guidelines, the terms “obscene” and “nudity” shall have the meanings contained in Massachusetts General Laws ch. 272, §31.¹
- x) Prurient sexual suggestiveness. The advertisement contains material that describes, depicts or represents sexual activities or aspects of the human anatomy in a way that the average adult, applying contemporary community standards, would find appeals to the prurient interest of minors or adults in sex. For purposes of these Guidelines, the term “minor” shall have the meaning contained in Massachusetts General Laws ch. 272, §31.²
- xi) Political campaign speech. The advertisement contains political campaign speech. For purposes of these Guidelines, the term “political campaign speech” is speech that (1) refers to a specific ballot question, initiative petition, or referendum, (2) promotes or opposes a political party for local, state, or federal election, or (3) promotes or opposes a candidate or group of candidates. For purposes of these Guidelines, the term “candidate” shall include any person actively campaigning for office, any person who has filed their candidacy or declared their intent to run for office, or any person who has been reported in the mainstream media as likely to run for a particular public office.
- xii) Political Issues or Matters of Public Debate. The advertisement concerns political issues or expresses or advocates an opinion, position or viewpoint on a matter of public debate about economic, political, moral, religious or social issues.
- xiii) Endorsement. The advertisement, or any material contained in it, implies or declares an endorsement by SRTA or the Commonwealth of any service, product or point of view, without prior written authorization of SRTA (through its Administrator) or the Commonwealth (through the Secretary of Transportation).

² Mass. Gen. Laws ch. 272, §31, defines “minor” as “a person under eighteen years of age.”

- xiv) False, misleading, or deceptive commercial speech. The advertisement proposes a commercial transaction, and the advertisement, or any material contained in it, is false, misleading or deceptive.
- xv) Libelous speech, copyright infringement, etc. The advertisement, or any material contained in it, is libelous or an infringement of copyright, or is otherwise unlawful or illegal or likely to subject SRTA to litigation.
- xvi) "Adult"-oriented goods or services. The advertisement promotes or encourages, or appears to promote or encourage, a transaction related to, or uses brand names, trademarks, slogans or other materials which are identifiable with, films rated "X" or "NC-17," video games rated M or AO, adult book stores, adult video stores, nude dance clubs and other adult entertainment establishments, adult telephone services, adult Internet sites and escort services.
- xvii) Alcohol. Advertisements that promote the sale, use, or production of an alcohol product.
